Product Status: AU Core Reference Implementations

Report Date:	2 November 2023
Report Period:	October 2023

Product Definition

Reference implementations assist implementers to adopt the AU Core FHIR IG through:

- Provide a starting point for developers that allows them to decide how to represent AU Core FHIR objects and behaviour within their environment.
- Provide means for practical testing at Connectathons and through piloting before the FHIR IGs are finalised.
